

Call goes out for LCA residents to help keep parks in top-notch shape

Special little jewels are the neighborhood parks of LCA. Maintaining their glitter, though, dictates an on-going investment of equity... both sweat and dollar versions. Your association has determined that Lincoln Central Park and Bauler Park are in need of some dedicated caretaking this spring and summer.

Police offer suggestions for safety

These tips were compiled by the LCA Safety Committee from suggestions made by the Chicago Police at recent Chicago Alternative Policing Strategies (CAPS) meetings in the LCA area. CAPS meetings for LCA residents north of Armitage are held the second Wednesday of every month, 6:30 pm at the St. Vincent DePaul Center, Halsted at Webster.

- ▶ Do not leave any valuables such as cell phones, GPS devices, or packages exposed on your car seat. You can become an easy target for smash-and-grab thefts.

From the President's Desk

Learning that the LCA board had elected me president was good news for sure. At the same time, the realization imbued in me a sense of heavy responsibility. LCA for so many years has been the advocacy voice for our neighborhood. Its tireless efforts are why our neighborhood is one of the city's greatest, a neighborhood that gives us joy in our daily living.
